

Massachusetts ACE-NNWL Leadership Awards

The Massachusetts ACE-NNWL Leadership Awards Committee invites nominations for the following awards to recognize current and on-going leaders in promoting women in higher education.

1. Lifetime Achievement Award

This award will be presented to a woman leader in higher education who throughout her long career has demonstrated significant leadership and promotion of women in the field. The awardee exemplifies the principles of the ACE National Network: IDEALS which stand for Identify, Develop, Encourage, Advance, Link and Support women to advance their careers in higher education.

To be eligible a potential candidate:

- Must have demonstrated a long-standing commitment to the advancement of women
- Provide visible evidence of encouragement and mentoring of women
- Demonstrate a breadth of experience in higher education
- Be at a career point where lifelong achievement can be measured

2. Leadership Award

This award recognizes women at any stage of their career who exhibit leadership in mentoring, promoting, and encouraging women in the field of higher education in Massachusetts. The awardee exemplifies the principles of the ACE National Network: IDEALS which stand for Identify, Develop, Encourage, Advance, Link and Support women to advance their careers.

To be eligible a potential candidate:

- Must demonstrate commitment to the advancement of women
- Provide evidence of encouragement and mentoring of women
- Demonstrate professional growth in increasingly responsible leadership positions

Process for Nomination:

1. Download nomination form for ACE Leadership Awards (<http://www.maacenetwork.org/awards>)
2. A maximum two-page letter of nomination is required demonstrating how the nominee exemplifies the ACE IDEALS (Identify, Develop, Encourage, Advance, Link, Support) principles.
3. The Awards Committee of the Massachusetts ACE Executive Board will review the nominees.
4. Final approval of selected winners by a majority vote of the Board.

Awardees and their guests will be invited to attend the end of the year June dinner to receive the award.
